Dear Counsel:

An in person initial scheduling conference shall be conducted before the Undersigned 11:30 a.m. on April 29, 2011.

Counsel are advised that the early disclosure requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26 will be enforced. Therefore, counsel shall immediately exchange the following information without a formal discovery request:

- identities of individuals likely to have knowledge of discoverable facts;
- documents and things in the possession of counsel or the party;
- identities of experts and their opinions;
- insurance agreements in force; and
- statement of the basis for any damages claimed.

At least fourteen (14) days prior to the conference scheduled herein, counsel shall personally meet and confer pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(f), and shall submit a discovery plan to the undersigned not later than 72 hours prior to the conference with the Court. The discovery plan shall include (1) a brief summary of the claims and defenses; and (2) a proposed schedule for completing fact and expert discovery. Unless the parties stipulate otherwise, the case management order will limit the number of interrogatories (25 including sub-parts) and depositions (10) which each party may seek. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b), (d).

At the conference, the Court will address scheduling of all motions. No motions shall be filed without prior leave of Court. If any motions have already been filed, please advise the Court immediately, in writing, regarding the nature of the motion and its present status. You may submit unopposed applications for pro hac vice admission with my Chambers. Please obtain consent of your adversary prior to filing your application, advising both in your cover letter and proposed Order that you have consent.

The parties shall immediately serve interrogatories, limited to twenty-five (25) single questions, and requests for production of documents (no limit).

At the conference, all parties who are not appearing pro se must be represented by counsel who shall have full authority to bind their clients in all pre-trial matters. Clients or persons with authority over the matter shall be available by telephone.

Counsel for plaintiff(s) shall notify any party, who hereafter enters an appearance, of the above conference, and forward to that party a copy of this Order.

The parties must advise this Court immediately if this action has been settled or terminated so that the above conference may be cancelled.

Failure to comply with the terms herein may result in the imposition of sanctions.

PLEASE NOTE that this action is subject to compulsory arbitration. Your attention is directed to the content of that Rule.

United States District Court for the District of New Jersey

NOTICE
November 2004

Dear Bar Member:

The United States District Court for the District of New Jersey implemented electronic case filing on January 5, 2004. The Case Management/Electronic Case Filing (CM/ECF) system is browser-based and accessible over the Internet. We are excited about the benefits this technology offers to the court and the bar, especially being able to file and view documents 24 hours a day from the convenience of your office or home.

Training is essential to utilize the full capabilities of this system. Attorneys are encouraged to participate in training and register to become e-filers. For your convenience, we are providing three methods of ECF training. Hands-on training classes are offered at each of our three courthouses. You can register for these classes on our web site at pacer.njd.uscourts.gov. There is a self-paced ECF tutorial that is accessible from our web site as well. We also offer on-site training that can be arranged at your firm depending on the number of attendees and the availability of suitable facilities by calling (973)-645-4439.

ECF registration forms can be obtained from any of our three offices or completed electronically on our website. It is strongly suggested that you familiarize yourself with the Policies and Procedures that govern the use of this System. The Electronic Case Filing Policies and Procedures are available on our web site, along with our ECF User's Guide and other useful information.

In addition to ECF access, it is recommended that a PACER (Public Access to Electronic Records) account is obtained. A PACER account will provide Filing Users with querying capabilities. PACER is a fee-for-use service offered by the Administrative Office of the United States Courts. Contact the PACER Service Center at (800)676-6856 or on-line at <http://pacer.psc.uscourts.gov>.

Please be advised that documents not filed electronically but filed in the traditional manner on paper must be accompanied by a floppy diskette or a CD containing the document(s) in PDF format. Each PDF document must not exceed 2MB or 2048KB. If the paper document contains an original signature, then the electronic version contained on the diskette or CD must include a signature line with "s/" (e.g., s/Jennifer Doe).

The real success of this system is a function of the number of lawyers who become registered e-filing users. Upon receipt of your ECF login and password, the court expects you to file electronically. Please take advantage of the CM/ECF training opportunities and become a registered e-filer before e-filing becomes mandatory. Beginning January 31, 2005, electronic case filing will be mandatory for all civil and criminal cases other than pro se cases.

Sincerely,

William T. Walsh
Clerk

ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION IN THE
UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY

Mediation is the Alternative Dispute Resolution ( “ADR”) program in this Court. Mediation is governed by Local Civil Rule 301.1. The mediation program under this rule is supervised by a judicial officer (at present United States Magistrate Judge Ronald J. Hedges) who is available to answer any questions about the program.

Any district judge or magistrate judge may refer a civil action to mediation. This may be done without the consent of the parties. However, the Court encourages parties to confer among themselves and consent to mediation. Moreover, you are reminded that, when counsel confer pursuant to Rule 26(f) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Local Civil Rule 26.1, one of the topics that must be addressed is the eligibility of a civil action for participation in ADR.

A civil action may be referred to mediation at any time. However, one of the advantages of mediation is that, if successful, it enables parties to avoid the time and expense of discovery and trial. Accordingly, the Court encourages parties to consent to mediation prior to or at the time that automatic disclosures are made pursuant to Rule 26(a)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

If parties consent to mediation, they may choose a mediator either from the list of certified mediators maintained by the Court or by the selection of a private mediator. If a civil action is referred to mediation without consent of the parties, the judicial officer responsible for supervision of the program will select the mediator.

Mediation is non-judgmental. The role of the mediator is to assist the parties in reaching a resolution of their dispute. The parties may confer with the mediator on an ex parte basis. Anything said to the mediator will be deemed to be confidential and will not be revealed to another party or to others without the party’s consent. The first six hours of a mediator’s time is free. The mediator’s hourly rate thereafter is $150.00, which is borne equally by the parties.

If you would like further information with regard to the mediation program please review the Guidelines for Mediation, which are available on the Court’s Web Site “pacer.njd.uscourts.gov” and appear as Appendix Q to the Local Civil Rules. You may also make inquiries of the judicial officer responsible for supervision of the program.

Civil actions in which there are pro se parties (incarcerated or not) are not eligible for mediation.
